

NEW MEXICO TOWNS

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

W. T. Guyer, who recently returned from the state of Washington, expects to open a cigar and tobacco establishment in this city.

The clerk of the district court for this county is issuing summons in suits brought by District Attorney E. C. Abbott against delinquent tax payers.

News was received in this city Saturday of the death of Clarence Elias, the little three months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Clark, of Plaza del Alcalde, who passed to the heaven of rest Friday night.

The game of base ball at San Pedro between the Santa Fe Blues and the Copper Miners' team resulted in a victory for the Santa Fe team, the score standing 5 to 4. About 300 people were in attendance.

A large rock was thrown through the plate glass window of Lowitzki's furniture store Saturday night. It is thought by Mr. Lowitzki to be the result of a fight in that neighborhood, and instead of some fellow's head getting the blow the window received it with disastrous results.

Charles J. Fisher and his brothers, Edward and Robert, who were residents of this city for several years, and who left here in 1893, are residing at Spokane Falls, Wash., where Charles is engaged in the mining brokerage business and the other two in mercantile pursuits. They are said to be doing nicely.

The will of Miss Flora Hilder, who died a few weeks ago, shows that she has bequeathed all her property to Miss Sarah Vornholt and sister, of Ohio, and who at one time resided in this city. The estate, after all debts, fees and costs are paid, will amount to $2,000, the deceased having carried a $2,500 life insurance policy payable to her heirs.

It is reported that the body of an infant, partially buried, was found Sunday on Cathedral street, and the story goes that the infant was buried alive. Police Judge Conklin and the city marshal investigated the matter as far as they could and went to the place where the body of the infant was said to be, but did not find it. There was only a small excavation and a batch of rags which it was thought covered the body. This is all that could be learned about the matter today.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol I did so, and words cannot tell the good that it did for me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body, depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

LAS CRUCES.

From the Progress.

W. H. Hughes, of Magdalena, was in town the first of the week on land office business.

Maugh Brown has gone to El Paso, where he has secured a position as conductor on the street railway.

Mrs. Borrus and son, Archie, of Pensacola, Florida, have arrived in the city to make their home. Mrs. Borrus is a sister of E. D. Williams.

Prof. D. M. Richards, in conversation this week, stated that the outlook for attendance at the college for the coming year was very good indeed.

C. N. Anthony, wife and children, of Organ, passed through Cruces on their way to El Paso, where they will reside in the future.

The condition of Ernest Winters, who was shot in the knee by the accidental discharge of a pistol, is improving. The bullet has been located and there will be no danger of having to amputate the limb.

Jeff Isaacs was in town the first of the week from his cattle ranch wearing a happy smile on his face. The recent rains have made all the cattlemen feel good. Jeff says they could stand a little more yet, however.

Reports from the Torpedo mine at Organ are to the effect that the mine is again flooded. There are four pumps in the mine now but all are under water. A new pump will have to be installed before operations can begin again.

From the Republican.

The Mesilla valley will have a fairly heavy crop of grapes this year.

Ernest Roullet, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever is improving.

Will Poe, who a short time ago broke him arm, is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Lane.

Little James Steel fractured his arm near the wrist the fore part of the week by falling from a bicycle.

Nestor Armijo lost 150 head of sheep that were killed by lightning at Three Rivers, Otero county. Mr. Armijo also lost 500 last year at one stroke from the same cause.

Gabriel Fresquez' boy, of Mesilla, was thrown from a horse last Thursday and his arm badly broken near the elbow. It seems that he fell from his horse and to protect his body he had thrown his arms forward, falling on one hand. The arm was broken and at the same time the horse kicked, striking the place that had been broken by the fall. The bones of the arm protruded both ways and pieces several inches long had to be taken away by Dr. Lane, who is trying to save the arm.

The best physic—Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect. For sale by all druggists.

HILLSBORO.

From the Advocate.

J. C. Plemmons left for the northern part of the county on mining business.

George Bullard has sold out his merchandise business at the Piacera to Jack Babbitt.

Assessor Kelly is making an abstract of the property of Sierra county, which will be utilized in the governor's annual report.

Harve Ringer's well is completed. He bored to a depth of over 100 feet and has plenty of water in sight. He will soon put up a windmill.

D. O. Crane and brother, Jesse, left the early part of the week for Topeka, Kansas. The latter has been in very poor health for some time and has gone to Kansas to enjoy a few weeks' rest.

Dancing seems to be all the rage just now. There was a dance at Andrews' hall on Friday night, and Hillsboro, Kingston and Lake Valley each took a turn at the mazy waltz Saturday night.

The first good flood to come down the South Pecos came down Sunday night. The country has been blessed with rains which seem to be general during the past few days. Stockmen are jubilant and predict an excellent crop of grass and fat cattle.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success."

SAN JUAN COUNTY.

Farmington.

From the Hustler.

The San Juan river is running bank full.

Big demand for fruit teams these days.

M. McKenzie's teams left for Albuquerque, loaded with hides and pelts.

Evans Wood, of Morenci, Ariz., has purchased of Chas. Butler a twenty acre tract of land near Flora Vista. Consideration, $800.

We are informed that about twenty mule teams from Oklahoma were at Bayfield several days ago headed for Farmington.

W. A. Hunter, this year representing Newhall & Sons, Chicago apple buyers, says he has already secured quite a number of good orchards.

"Doley Hildebrand and Bud Hamblett were quite severely injured Tuesday, by falling through a hayrack, the wheels of the wagon passing over their bodies."

Bruce Wees, representing Baker & Co., the Chicago apple buyers, was here the fore part of the week looking over our orchards. He says the fruits look fine, with scarcely a worm to be found.

Architect Tice has submitted plans for a new Indian school building to be erected on the lower San Juan about thirty miles west of the hogback, at the instigation of Mrs. Mary L. Eldridge, of the Jewett mission.

Bert Thomas, one of La Plata's most popular young men, spent several days in Farmington this week. He says the residents of that valley are working hard to reach the river underflow, and have every assurance of success.

At a meeting of the board of trade held Saturday evening the secretary

MAN HOUSEKEEPER.

Tried It Ninety Days.

There is one case on record where a man had a good easy time of it while his was away and she tells the tale.

"Circumstances made it necessary for me to leave husband for a month to pursue his bachelordom as best he could. He resolved to give Grape-Nuts a thorough trial as he had for years been subject to bilious attacks and indigestion."

"During my absence he gained in weight and his health seemed perfect, therefore I give you for the benefit of suffering men in particular, and women in general, his menu for the 90 days: four teaspoonsful of Grape-Nuts sprinkled with a little salt and covered with good cream, one slice of bread and butter, one large cup of Postum Cereal Coffee (made according to directions) and all the fruit he wanted."

"He worked during the time nine hours a day and never realized he possessed a stomach. This diet my husband earnestly recommends to office men, students and to all people of sedentary habits especially, and let me tell it to all wives, this meal can be prepared by an inexperienced servant, a young son or daughter, thereby saving yourself hours of labor. Try it. It will make your work lighter, your purse heavier, your body healthier and all of you happier." Name given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

was instructed to write Senator W. H. Andrews, of Pennsylvania, under the seal of the organization, and invite that gentleman to visit this section. Senator Andrews is back of the Santa Fe Central railroad, which is headed in this direction.

The fruit evaporator presents a busy appearance these days. From ten to twelve hands are employed in the fruit and tending the machine. A crew of ten skilled packers are also engaged packing early fresh fruit for foreign markets, some 45,000 pounds having already been shipped from the evaporator this season.

From the Times.

Harvey Shawver left on Tuesday's stage to spend a few weeks with his grandmother at Salt Lake before going to school at Colorado Springs.

George and Wesley Phelps left for Gallup with 6,000 pounds of fruit, and Dr. Wallis started for Durango with another big load from the same orchard Wednesday.

Harvey Towner and wife returned from a business visit to Mancos the first of the week. We understand Mr. Towner has been employed as principal of the Fruitland school.

The case of the town vs. James Bryant, charged with illicit selling of liquor in the town of Farmington, was dismissed, Bryant paying $1.75 costs and $10 license, covering the time in which he sold liquors.

Miss Maude Galbreath, daughter of Judge Galbreath, of Durango, is here visiting with Miss Clara Dannels and other friends. Miss Maude took an outing at the sea coast in California the past winter.

Aztec.

From the Index.

A rain on the 13th inst. was a failure. A drought has a hard time of it in San Juan county, anyway.

The 2 year old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turner, of Flora Vista, has been on the sick list. Dr. Eblen is in attendance.

The Albuquerque Citizen has again enlarged its size and presents a better appearance than ever. The Citizen's sails appear to be filled with the breeze of prosperity.

Good rains have fallen during the past week on the San Juan river watershed, and out Largo way the downpour must have been great. The canon has been running since a week ago Tuesday and there is enough water in the river for all purposes.

A scientific expedition, outfitted by the "Records of the Past Exploring society," of Washington, D. C., passed through the valley this week, en route to the Chaco ruins and the Mogul country, where they expect to witness the Mogul snake dance. They photographed the Aztec ruins near here, and had recently visited Mancos, making explorations of the cliff dwellings near there. In the party were Rev. Henry Mason Bond, of Washington, president of the society; Lorin Clancy, of Washington; Clark Adams, of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch; John Pfeifferberger, of Alton, Ill.; Dr. A. W. Parks, of St. Louis, and C. M. Scarborough of Denver.

His Sight Threatened.

"While picnicking last month my 11 year old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin disease, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

CARLSBAD.

From the Argus.

Miss Josephine Witt has announced her candidacy for the office of county school superintendent, subject to the approval of the democratic primaries.

Mrs. Maynard Shad reports that she shipped from her La Huerta orchard 1,120 boxes of peaches, besides selling about $400 worth on the local market. She will net about $1,200 on her fruit crop for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wheeler, from Lamar, Mo., arrived here and announce that they are here to stay. They come originally for the benefit of Mrs. Wheeler's health, but Mr. Wheeler has decided to go permanently into the chicken farming business.

The Tracy peach orchard suffered severely by the rains of the past month, the water standing about the trees and scalding a number of them to death before the flood could be drained off. However, the results of the fruit crop has been most gratifying to Mr. Tracy, the figures of which will be ready for publication shortly.

Roswell town board got on its fighting clothes, last week, and discharged City Marshal Sycamore and requested the resignation of City Attorney Gatewood. The latter action was caused by the bad feeling engendered between the council and Judge Gatewood by the latter's opposition to the lease of the fair grounds.

Carlsbad and vicinity got another heavy soaking Sunday and the range throughout this section is the most wonderful ever seen. Grass is high enough to cut for hay nearly anywhere even the rocky hills being clad with a heavy growth. About eleven and a quarter inches of rain has fallen in the past month—unprecedented figures for this region.

The management of the Roswell fair will offer $500 in prizes for a big roping match to come off during the fair. First money will be $400, while $100 will be divided among second and third winners. The big purse ought to attract a goodly number of the knights of the lasso, and Eddy con-ty will furnish a considerable quota of boys that, with any sort of luck, will have a "look-in" for that money.

Went to Visit His Sister.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was so much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturers a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

ALOMOGORDO.

From the News.

Mrs. A. L. Keith is now in White Oaks on a visit to her son, Robert Leslie.

J. H. O'Reilly, the life insurance man from Albuquerque, is in town, talking business and the territorial fair.

J. J. Brick left for Chicago, New York and several other of the eastern cities and health resorts. He will have a good time generally.

Mrs. L. E. Gillett returned from her two weeks' visit at Cloudercroft. She was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Keith, who came here from Weed.

Miss M. A. Bonham, who has been visiting with the family of Mr. W. G. Hodge, of this city, has returned to her home at Cleburne, Texas. Miss Bonham is one of the teachers in the public schools at Cleburne.

Some say that this season's crop of mesquite beans is very heavy, and this, together with recent heavy rains throughout the southwest, means grass, beans and well kept cattle this fall and winter.

Mr. Hopper informs the News that a re-saw has been added to mill No. 1, which will increase the capacity of this mill 30 per cent, enabling No. 1 to turn out at least 100,000 feet of lumber daily. Business at both mills is grinding on nicely, though a small blitch was occasioned last Tuesday on account of a log train being off the track for several hours up in the mountains, which was due to the heavy rain the night before, causing the track to spread.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't get purgatives that gripe and weaken. De Witt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and acts as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 521 Highland avenue, Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried De Witt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

GALLUP.

From the Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mulder have returned from their trip to Moqui.

The briquette plant is running night and day. Good results are looked for soon.

Judge Baker will hold a term of court in Gallup for one day on the 13th of September.

Agent Holmes says Thursday was his "busy day," having handled 561 cars through the yards.

Mrs. Cotton, Smith and Watkins and Miss Armstrong enjoyed an outing at Hemlock canyon last Saturday.

The adjourned session of the supreme court of New Mexico will meet at Santa Fe on the 28th of this month. The case of the United States vs. L. E. Densmore is set for the 28th inst.

Division Foreman Springle has gone to the Jemez hot springs to spend a couple of weeks with his family. Peter Kitchen and family left the same day for a visit to the springs.

Gregory Page went to Albuquerque to serve as one of the United States jury commissioners for the term which commences at Albuquerque on the third Monday of September.

Doctor Hinch is going with some friends next week on a bear hunt to the Zuni mountains. Bears are more in evidence than they have been for years. One was shot last week in front of J. B. Moore's store at Cottonwood pass on the reservation.

A black bear was killed this morning three miles west of town by Andrew Casna, Dan and Ed Manning, Manager Kelly, of the Colorado Supply company's market who relish this class of meat will do well to file their order early.

Consumption Threatened.

"I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption," says C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill. "I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since."
